12. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendants jointly had, and still have, the right and ability to supervise and control the activities that take place at Midnight Rodeo, including the right and ability to supervise and control the public performance of musical compositions at Midnight Rodeo.

13. Each Defendant derives a direct financial benefit from the public performance of musical compositions at Midnight Rodeo.

FACTS SPECIFIC TO DEFENDANTS' INFRINGEMENT OF PLAINTIFFS' COPYRIGHTED MUSICAL COMPOSITIONS

14. The Plaintiffs are all members of the American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers ("ASCAP"), a membership association that represents, licenses, and protects the public performance rights of its more than 1 million songwriter, composer, and music publisher members. Each ASCAP member grants to ASCAP a non-exclusive right to license the performing rights in that member's copyrighted musical compositions. On behalf of its members, ASCAP licenses public performances of its members' musical works, collects license fees associated with those performances, and distributes royalties to its members, less ASCAP's operating expenses.

15. In undertaking the conduct complained of in this action, Defendants knowingly and intentionally violated Plaintiffs' rights. Defendants' knowledge and intent are established by at least the following facts.

16. Defendants entered into a license with ASCAP, effective March 1, 2021, for Midnight Rodeo.

17. Defendants failed to pay the license fees required by the license agreement.

18. Because of Defendants' failure to pay the license fees due, on March 14, 2024, upon written notice, ASCAP terminated the ASCAP license for Midnight Rodeo.

19. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Defendants have continued to present public performances of the copyrighted musical compositions of ASCAP members at Midnight Rodeo, including the copyrighted works involved in this action, without permission, during the hours that the establishment is open to the public for business and presenting musical entertainment.

20. The many unauthorized performances at Midnight Rodeo include the performance of the three copyrighted musical compositions upon which this action is based.

21. The original compositions listed in Column 3 were created and written by the people named in Column 4.

22. The original compositions listed in Column 3 were published on the dates stated in Column 5, and, since their respective date of publication, have been printed and published in strict conformity with Title 17 of the United States Code.

23. The Plaintiffs named in each cause of action, including their predecessors in interest, if any, complied in all respects with Title 17 of the United States Code, secured the exclusive rights and privileges in and to the copyright of each composition listed in Column 3, and received from the Register of Copyrights a Certificate of Registration, identified as set forth in Column 6.

24. Defendants on the dates specified in Column 7, and upon information and belief, at other times prior and subsequent thereto, infringed the copyright in each composition named in Column 3 by performing publicly the compositions at Midnight Rodeo, for the entertainment and amusement of the patrons attending said premises, and Defendants threaten to continue such infringing performances.

25. The public performances at Midnight Rodeo of the Plaintiffs' copyrighted musical compositions on the dates specified in Column 7 were unauthorized: neither Defendants, nor any of the Defendants' agents, servants or employees, nor any performer was licensed by, or otherwise received permission from any Plaintiff, or any agent, servant, or employee of any Plaintiff, to give such performances.

26. In undertaking the conduct complained of in this action, Defendants knowingly and intentionally violated Plaintiffs' rights.

27. At the times of the acts of infringement complained of, the Plaintiff named in each cause of action was an owner of the copyright in the composition therein named.

28. The said wrongful acts of Defendants have caused and are causing great injury to the Plaintiffs, which damage cannot be accurately computed, and unless this Court restrains Defendants from the further commission of said acts, said Plaintiffs will suffer irreparable injury, for all of which the said Plaintiffs are without any adequate remedy at law.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray:

I. That Defendants and all persons acting under the direction, control, permission or authority of Defendants be enjoined and restrained permanently from publicly performing the aforementioned compositions -- or any of them -- and from causing or permitting the said compositions to be publicly performed at Midnight Rodeo, or at any place owned, controlled, managed, or operated by Defendants, and from aiding or abetting the public performance of such compositions in any such place or otherwise.

II. That Defendants be decreed to pay such statutory damages as to the Court shall appear just, as specified in 17 U.S.C. § 504(c)(1), namely, not more than Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000) nor less than Seven Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($750) in each cause of action herein.

III. That Defendants be decreed to pay the costs of this action and that a reasonable attorney's fee be allowed as part of the costs.

For such other and further relief as may be just and equitable.

Dated: March 3, 2025

Respectfully submitted,
